ANTHEM

Rivers of Babylon

Brent Dowe
& Trevor McNaughton

COMBINED GOSPEL AND SUMMER CHOIRS

By the rivers of Babylon, where we sat down,
and there we wept when we remembered Zion.
Carry us away in captivity, require from us a song;
how can we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

So let the the words of our mouth,
and the meditation of our heart
be acceptable in thy sight over us.

SCRIPTURE

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

PRAYER RESPONSE

His Eye Is on the Sparrow
Jordan Pettis, soloist

Charles Gabriel
and Civilla Martin

Why should I feel discouraged, why should the shadows come?
Why should my heart be lonely, and long for heaven and home when Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is he;
his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me;
his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.

*I sing because I'm happy, I sing because I'm free;
for his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.*

“Let not your heart be troubled,” his tender word I hear.
And resting on his goodness, I lose my doubts and fears.
Though by the path he leadeth, but one step I may see:
his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me;
his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.

I sing because I'm happy....

Jordan Pettis, soloist

I can do the impossible, I can see the invisible because I got faith.
Cause you know I got faith— yeah, yeah.

I can climb a mountain, and I can reach my goal.
More than a conqueror down in my soul.
The devil is a liar, I've won the race;
said I got victory all because I got faith.

I can do the impossible, I can see the invisible because I got faith....

Yes I can, oh I can, if I wanna, yes I can...

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

What are monuments for? Whose stories do they hold up for celebration? Whose stories do they erase or bury?

- In our first workshop of the day, led by Wee The People Boston's Francie LaTour, we explore statues and monuments (famous and not so famous), question what they mean, and reimagine how they can celebrate values of community, equity, and justice. Hands-on making for all ages!

SAMUEL ADAMS AND THE BRATTLE STREET CHURCH MYSTERY

Blog by Kate Silfen, Church Historian, go to tinyurl.com/OSCJuneHistoryBlog for the whole story

A few months ago, I came across a scanned image of an Old South membership record from 1789. On July 14th of that year, 66-year old Samuel Adams Jr became a member of the Old South Church. The membership record indicates that he had transferred his membership from the Brattle Street Church. This was a surprise to me. I had always assumed that Samuel Adams was a life-long member of Old South because of his family's long involvement with the church. His parents had been members before him, and his grandfather and great-grandfather were founding members of the Old South Church in Boston in 1669 (Stoll, 2008)...

While it took Samuel Adams 66 years to become an official member of his grandfather's church, he quickly became an active member. According to the Reverend Nancy Taylor, Samuel Adams found the time to represent the Old South Church at ecclesiastical councils in Roxbury and New Hampshire. He was also an active choir member and he selected the tunes to match the day's Psalms. A faithful church goer, he rarely missed a Sunday (Taylor, 2012). Old South was blessed to have him as a member for the remainder of his life.
